

Optional homework #5

Devise a rigorous test for orbital invariance easily applicable to algebraic or diagrammatic equations defining an electronic or vibrational structure method (similar to the ones for size consistency).